Navigating the Bus
Student Guide

Pre-Work

1. Have you ever taken the public city bus? Yes ☐   No ☐

2. If yes, what bus route do you take? _____

   Where do you take the bus to? _____

Computer Lab

1. Open up the internet browser Google Chrome (or another preferred browser of your choice).

2. In the address bar type in cttransit.com and hit enter.

3. Once on the website, move your cursor over "Routes". A drop down will appear. Click on "Local Service".

4. On the new page, scroll down and when you see "Hartford" click on it.

5. On the next page, scroll down until you find bus route "69 Capitol Avenue" and click on it.

66	Farmington Avenue/UConn/Unionville
69	Capitol Avenue
72	Asylum Avenue

6. Scroll down until you see available schedules for bus route "69 Capitol Avenue". You may click on each schedule to see different bus times.

69 Capitol Avenue

No Sunday service on this route.

Schedules
- Weekday
- Saturday

Maps
- Route
- Downtown Hartford Stops
- Hartford Area Local System

7. You can switch back and forth between schedules and the website by clicking on the tabs on the top of the page.

Schedules | CTtransit   h_69_satsunsched   h_69_wkdysched   ×

8. Answer the questions below about bus route 69 Capitol Avenue.

Name_____   Date_____

Bus Routes

Bus Route: 69 Capitol Avenue

1. Does this bus have Sunday service? Yes ☐   No ☐

2. Click on the "Weekday" schedule. What is the first stop on the route?

   _____

3. What time does the bus arrive at the first stop in the morning? _____

4. Does this bus go to Capitol & Sisson Avenue? Yes ☐   No ☐

5. If you take the 8:42 AM bus from Capitol & Broad, at what time will you arrive at the Willard & Robbins stop? _____

6. Scroll down to the second page of the "Weekday" schedule (this schedule goes in the opposite direction). What is the last stop of the day and at what time?

   _____

7. Is the 69 Capitol Avenue route a bus that you could take to and from home, school, work, etc?

   Yes ☐   No ☐   Not Sure ☐